

City of Ridgeside

Ordinance 2007-01

ANIMAL Control

WHEREAS, it is declared public policy of this municipality to achieve, maintain and protect human health and safety, foster the comfort of its residents, to declare prevent and remove nuisances

Now, therefore, be it ordained by the Board of Commissioners of the City of Ridgeside that:

It shall be unlawful for:

- 1.1 Any person to fail to promptly remove waste left by an animal being handled by that person on any property, public or private, other than the premises of the owner of such animal.
- 1.2 Any person to fail to be prepared for such occurrences and be equipped with a bag or some other means of waste removal.
- 1.3 Any person to fail to properly dispose of the waste.

PENALTY. Any person who shall violate any provision of this Ordinance shall upon conviction thereof forfeit no less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars in addition to any costs of prosecution and upon default of payment such forfeiture and costs of prosecution may be imprisoned in the County Jail until said forfeiture and costs are paid, but not to exceed seven (7) days.

This law is intended to protect the public from potential hazardous health conditions and prevent environmental pollution caused by animal waste.

BE IT FURTHER ORDAINED that if any section , subsection, sentence, word or figure contained in this ordinance should be declared invalid by a final decree of a court of competent jurisdiction such holding shall not affect the remaining sections, subsections, sentences, words or figures contained in this ordinance, but the same shall remain in full force and effect.
